The UNAIDS Inter-Agency Task Team on Education and School Health and UNESCO, as secretariat, are pleased to announce its 2017 Symposium on,

“Lessons from implementing HIV and school health initiatives: exploring gaps and opportunities for gender responsive programming in education”

10 - 11 May 2017 – Lusaka, Zambia

The Symposium presents an opportunity for discourse among the education, health and gender communities on: the evidence and lessons of implementing HIV and health education programmes; efforts towards strengthening interlinkages between education and health sector responses; and, the positioning of approaches that are gender responsive within these efforts - all towards the achievement of the 2030 sustainable development goals and targets.
