

University of Ilorin Policy on HIV/AIDS

2006.

Organizations:

Unilorin Technical Coordinating Committee on HIV/AIDS

Description:

University of Ilorin is committed towards controlling the spread of HIV in the University community, providing equitable care and support for all staff and students within the community who may be infected by HIV and mitigating its impact to the point where it is no longer a threat to healthy and productive life. The University of Ilorin is also committed to be part of the global effort in controlling the pandemic of HIV/AIDS. Towards achieving this goal, the following objectives have been formulated: 1. Create awareness and an enabling environment for mitigating the spread and impact of HIV/AIDS. 2. Promote a multi-disciplinary response to issues relating to HIV/AIDS. 3. Ensure that adequate attention is paid to vulnerable groups such as women, young adults and students with special needs. 4. Provide care and support for People Living With HIV/AIDS (PLWHA) and People Affected by HIV/AIDS (PABA) in the University community. 5. Stimulate research on all activities relating to the epidemic.
