

Youth in the Philippines : a review of the youth situation and national policies and programmes

New York: United Nations, 2000. 141 p.

Organizations:

Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific
Queen's University, Canada

Collection:

ST/ESCAP/2082

Description:

The monograph contains six chapters: youth development; youth education; youth health; youth employment; youth participation; and conclusions and recommendations. The first chapter on youth development provides an overview of youth participation in national development followed by a review of the national youth policy and programmes. Each of the three chapters on education, health and employment begin with an analysis of policy and followed by a quantitative and a qualitative analysis on youth issues in the relevant area.
