Notes:

In Ghana, the dearth of studies on HIV/AIDS institutional policy with respect to possible consequences of HIV/AIDS on institutions necessitated a survey on existing data in the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR).

Description:

The target group for the study was CSIR staff, with a working force of about 4 million. Selection of institutions across the country was to have a better representation of all CSIR institutions in the southern and northern sectors of Ghana. In all 130 participants were selected for the survey from eight institutions out of the 13 institutes of the CSIR. Respondents were drawn from CSIR Water Research Institute Accra, CSIR Head Office Accra, Scientific and Technological Policy Research Institution (STEPRI) Accra, Food Research Institute Accra, Soil Research Institute Kumasi, Crop Research Institute Kumasi, Animal Research Institute (branch office, Tamale), Water Research Institute (branch office, Tamale) and Savannah Agriculture Institute, Nyankpala-Tamale.
