Consultancy opportunities on early and unintended pregnancy and school violence and bullying

Aug 04, 2017

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO is inviting expressions of interests from suitably qualified candidates for the following two consultancy opportunities:

(i) Consultant to conduct a situation analysis of early and unintended pregnancy in Eastern and Southern Africa.

Interested consultants may submit a cover letter and CV together with a brief proposal not exceeding 10 pages on the budget, methodology and approach for the assignment to vacancies.harare@unesco.org <sup>[1]</sup> with copy to sr.musindo@unesco.org <sup>[2]</sup> by COB 21 August 2017.

(ii) Consultant to conduct a secondary analysis of data on school violence and bullying collected through the Global School-based Student Health Survey (GSHS).

Interested consultants should submit a cover letter, CV, and electronic copies of two publications of which they are the main authors, together with a brief proposal on the approach to and estimated costs for the assignment, to Mr. Yongfeng Liu at yf.liu@unesco.org <sup>[3]</sup> by COB 15 September 2017.
