Joint message on school health and nutrition in the context of the COVID-19 in Eastern and Southern Africa

2020. 2 p.

Organizations:
World Food Programme, WFP
unicef

Description:
In Eastern and Southern Africa, at least 120 million children and youth are not able to attend school due to COVID-19 related school closures. More than 16 million affected school-children in the region rely on school meals and nutrition services. This joint note provides key messages and guidelines for governments and WFP and UNICEF Country Offices to lead assessments, planning, implementation and system strengthening for risk-informed and resilient school health and nutrition programmes in response to COVID-19.
